In our Fort Worth Community: Senior correspondent for the PBS program "The NewsHour," Ray Suarez, will speak at 1 p.m., Saturday, March 13, at University Christian Church. As part of the 2010 Lenten Series of the Episcopal Diocese of Fort Worth, his topic is "Do We Owe Each Other Anything? Benedict, Our Church and a Complicated Century". The event is open to the public. There is an admission fee of $5 per person. Ray Suarez is a devout Episcopalian whose faith informs his daily work and whose work informs his faith. He will speak about the times and places he has seen the values of Benedictine spirituality espoused in events he has covered, from the recent earthquake in Chili to the disaster in Haiti to the first all-race elections in South Africa. His book, "The Holy Vote: The Politics of Faith in America, an examination of the tightening relationship between religion and politics in America," will be available for purchase. Contact Ellen Lewis at 817.926.6631 ext. 262
