April FOOL'S Talent Show

If you attended Westside's Mardi Gras Party and Auction in February, you already know Westside members and friends are a fun group to spend social time with. At the April Fool's Talent Show on March 31st, you not only get to socialize with some of those fine folks again, you also get to see a few of those same folks share their talents. The 2006 show was enjoyed by 75 people. Not a single rotten tomato was thrown, and applause and smiles were plentiful!

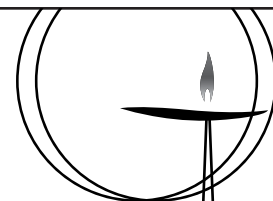

Don't miss your chance to join the fun in 2007. The doors will open at 6:30, so you'll have plenty of time to help yourself to the appetizers and non-alcoholic beverages provided by the Social Committee, and/or pop open another beverage of your choice which you are welcome to bring, and settle into your seat before the show starts promptly at 7:00.

Child-care will be available beginning at 6:30. Advance notification of child-care needs will be appreciated and can be accomplished by contacting Mary Noer (817-249-7341 or terrynoer@sbcglobal.net). Children are welcome to enjoy the show, but please be aware of the possibility of PG-13+ acts in the second half of the show following intermission. It's not too late to sign-up to perform! Please contact Brenda Baldwin (brendabrew@hotmail.com or 817-988-9441) for information and/or to be added to the stellar line-up of performers.

Lunch Bunch

All are invited to meet at Central Market for lunch after church every Sunday (except Potluck Sunday) in March. Indoor and outdoor seating is available, and there is something for every diet and taste – a noodle bar, sandwich grill, salad bar, and hot and cold entrees for vegetarians and carnivores alike. Visitors and newcomers are especially welcomed so that we can get to know you better!

Our Mission Statement

Westside Unitarian Universalist Church makes a positive difference in the lives of our members, our families, and the world at large through supportive relationships, religious exploration, and social action.

Our Vision Statement

Sunday Services 11:00 am – 12:00 pm

March 4th - Freedom by Nancy Vanboskirk. Some reflections on freedom -- what is it and what is it good for?

March 11th - If You're Happy and You Know it... by Dr. Russell Elleven. Sometimes it is difficult to be happy. There seem to be so many things going wrong, so many people who do bad things, so many travesties that sometimes happiness is elusive. Russell will talk about happiness during his reflection.

March 18th - A MUUSIC Sampler: Contemporary Artists voicing Unitarian Principles. Westside's band, The TrUUe Believers, will discuss and perform the music of several contemporary musicians who have embraced UU principles in both their songs and in their personal lives. Join us for an informative and entertaining Sunday!

March 25th - Living and Dying in America by Dr. Russell Elleven. For many reasons death has been on Russell's mind lately. He will reflect a bit on this Sunday and let you know where his thoughts have personally led him. Perhaps you will agree with his ideas...perhaps not.

Welcoming Congregation

Once again, our Welcoming Congregation educational session in February was well attended. Thank you! Russell will present the fifth of six educational sessions for the program on Sunday, March 11th at 9:30 a.m. Your continued support is greatly appreciated!

Where's Russell in March?

Russell will be in town each weekend of March delivering Joys & Concerns during services. On March 4th he will officiate a wedding after church right down the street at the Rose Chapel. He will offer the fifth Welcoming Congregation session on March 11th and deliver reflections on the 11th and 25th. Russell will attend the Texas Storytelling Festival with his father and father-in-law from the evening of the 29th through April 1st. Because of this he will regrettably miss the talent show and Social Justice Sunday:-(

Office Hours for March are as follows:

WestAid Trinity Trek

WestAid will hold its Second Annual Trinity Trek Bike-A-Thon, Saturday, April 21, 2007 at 7:00 a.m. The Trinity Trek is a great way to have healthy fun and benefit WestAid at the same time. This is a fun ride not a race.

This year WestAid will again have a 50-kilometer (31 mile) trek along the Trinity River Bike Paths. All friends and families are welcome to participate. WestAid will benefit through pledges for each rider per mile or kilometer completed. Relay teams are accepted especially for group members who do not feel they are capable of the entire distance individually. Each member of the team should participate in the pledge process for his or her individual progress.

Congregations, youth groups and Scout Troops or Packs and schools are needed to participate both with riders and by staffing water stations along the path. Corporate teams or sponsors are encouraged also.

The registration fee is $15.00. All participants will receive a t-shirt. The starting line is at Memorial Oak Park in Benbrook, off Winscott Rd. near the soapbox derby track. Questions? Call 817-732-3388 or 817-737-9338. Registration forms are available online at www.westaid.org.

Cherry Blossom Festival Weekend in Washington DC

Hosts will provide breakfast on Saturday and Sunday. Transportation to and from the airport and church service on Sunday is also included.

A brief city tour (or a Metro pass), reserved seats at the Annual Cherry Blossom Parade, and a dinner at church on Saturday evening are all part of the festival package. Participants will receive a package of tour materials and recommendations, including Metro maps, to make any touring on your own easy.

All proceeds benefit the church. This event is a service project led by the CLUUC Covenant Group Program. The cost is $250 per single or $500 per couple. Registration is due by March 19th, accompanied by a non-refundable deposit of 50% of the total cost. Copies of the reservation form are available at www.cedarlane.org/cbfestival.

Spiritual Wholeness: Mind, Body, Spirit Friday, March 30 – Sunday, April 1

(originally published in the Southwestern UU newsletter)

A new series of workshops will take place at the UbarU Retreat and Conference Center, located in the heart of the fabled Hill Country. Led by the Reverend Tom Capo and Martha Kirby Capo, the "Spiritual Wholeness: Mind, Body, Spirit" workshop series begins with a weekend retreat on Prayer and Meditation. Specifically designed for Unitarian Universalists, workshops in the series also include "Personal Mission and Vision; Deepening Your Theology; and a couples' workshop, Spiritual Journeys in Partnership.

An ordained UU minister, Rev. Tom has been in private psychotherapy practice for over 25 years. He has led several workshops for NASA and at SWUUSI. Martha Kirby Capo is an award-winning, published poet and lyricist whose work has appeared in The Aureorean, Texas Poetry Calendar 2000 and 2003, Curbside Review and several PoetWorks Press volumes.

The Prayer and Meditation workshop will be held Friday, March 30, through Sunday, April 1, 2007. The cost is $150 per person. To learn more about the "Spiritual Wholeness: Mind, Body, Spirit" workshops or to register, contact Rev. Tom at 281-468-2800 or at tcapo@houston.rr.com.

Spectrum Concerts

John Johnson of First Jefferson UU Church invites all Westsiders to the final two concerts in a chamber music series performed by The Spectrum Chamber Group. The first concert will be Monday, April 23rd, at 7:00 pm at First United Methodist Church (in the acoustically live Leonard Chapel at the northeast corner of the church). The Methodist church is located at 800 W. 5th Street, Fort Worth, TX 76102. The second concert will be Monday, April 30th, at 7:30 p.m. at First Jefferson UU Church (where these concerts started 21 years ago). First Jefferson is located at 1959 Sandy Lane, Fort Worth, TX 76112.

Every year, there are three pairs of concerts – all different. Most of the musicians are members of the Fort Worth Symphony Orchestra. Dave Hermann, FWSO's associate principal violist, selects music, acquires it, recruits musicians, usually plays in at least one piece, and is the "number-one stagehand par excellence." Wayne Gay, the former Fort Worth Star-Telegram critic, called this series "the best kept musical secret in Fort Worth."

The First Methodist concert is free, being subsidized by the church. The First Jefferson concert suggests an $8.00 donation; however, John assures says, "We do a whole lot better reception than the Methodists, and we even have more attendance." For more information, contact John at 817-810-9399 or at oldpapa123@charter.net, or contact Dave Hermann directly at hermann785@aol.com. He will put you on the Spectrum's mailing list, and a postcard describing the program will be sent to you about a week before the concert.

Unitarian Universalists Join Anti-War March on Washington

(originally published at UUA.org)

In the wake of President George W. Bush's state of the union address announcing an immediate escalation of U.S. troop presence in Iraq, hundreds of Unitarian Universalists converged on the U.S. capitol on Saturday for an anti-war rally and march organized by United for Peace and Justice and supported by the Win Without War coalition. UU participants joined an estimated five hundred thousand others, united in their opposition to the war in Iraq and their support for bringing our troops home.

Many UU's attended the interfaith service, which was held before the march at the Church of the Reformation on Capitol Hill. The service, organized by the Network of Spiritual Progressives, including a chalice lighting by Rev. Rob Hardies, Senior Minister of All Souls Church, Unitarian in Washington D.C. The All Souls Jubilee Singers led the overflow crowd in songs of peace and justice.

Janice View, a member of All Souls, attended the interfaith service and was inspired: "It was wonderful to have an interfaith grouping of people responding to the war, calling for peace and justice... It was not as multi-cultural as it should have been. But we're working on that too."

The UU Congregation of Fairfax in Oakton, VA, mobilized fifty congregants to participate in the march and rally. Participants ranged in age from one to eighty-three, and the adults spoke of how important they felt their presence was as a way of letting Congress know that they do not support the continued occupation of Iraq nor the escalation of troops and funds to support that occupation. They also expressed their continued support for the troops and their sorrow at the deaths that continue to mount. (This congregation built an Iraq War Memorial Cairn in May 2004 to honor U.S. military deaths alongside Iraqi civilian deaths.) Some Fairfax members expected to visit and send letters to their senators, John Warner and Jim Webb, to thank them for their opposition to the escalation of the war.

After the service UU's gathered on the national mall, hoisting their congregational banners. Participants, all wearing UU stickers, came from Maine, Illinois, Delaware, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Minnesota, Iowa, North Carolina, Connecticut, Massachusetts, Virginia, the District of Columbia, and Maryland, and marched behind a UUA banner.

The rally and march were aimed at telling Congress to fulfill their mandate for change. Over eight hundred of the protesters participated in a lobby day on Monday, January 29, focused on encouraging U.S. elected officials to stop the war's escalation and start bringing the troops home now.

No heart which shuts out truth and love can be the abode of God.

Inside Westside

New and Familiar Faces

By Elizabeth Campbell

Dana Crew wanted to find a church where she felt comfortable asking questions. Before joining Westside, Dana attended a Pentecostal church where questions were discouraged. Dana continued searching for a church online and by talking to people about different places where she could worship. She discovered Westside. She recalled being a little nervous about attending. Her nervousness quickly faded after she visited the church. "After I walked in the door though I felt a sense of calm and warmth. This even before I met the first person," she wrote. Dana said she was impressed that the congregation respected people, although some expressed different views.

Dana has a 3-year-old son, Lane, who has made several young friends at the church. "He constantly asks to go to "Church" and asks to put his money in the basket. This is such a wonderful place for him to grow and experience new things and find his own way and his own personal path to follow," she said.

Dana says her full time job is taking care of Lane, but she also has a busy job working as an emergency room secretary at Walls Regional Hospital in Cleburne. She will also become a patient care specialist in June. Dana is also studying nursing at Tarrant County College.

Russell & Gayle's Tea Party

Casa 2007

For the past eight years, a group of us, called CASA, have gone down to the Mexico border and built a small house for families that live there. This year's trip down to Progresso, Mexico is scheduled for June 3rd - 6th. We are building one house this year. If you are interested in joining us or want to know more about the project, please contact Bill Terry or Mary Noer (817-249-7341 or email terrynoer@sbcglobal.net). We are also accepting contributions to fund the building materials we use for the project. Any contribution will help and is greatly appreciated. You may contribute through the church. Just write CASA 2007 on the memo line of your check, and place it in the offerings basket.

Westside Minister Needs Help with Divorce

No, Russell and Gayle are not divorcing! Russell is creating a divorce education curriculum. The curriculum is being developed as his final project for the Doctor of Ministry degree at Meadville Lombard Theological Seminary. If you have gone through the experience of divorce, you can help Russell by evaluating the program. There will be two sessions that will occur on two consecutive Saturdays - March 3rd and March 10th. The duration of these sessions is anticipated to be from 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. Lunch will be provided. If you are willing or able to help, please contact Russell at doctorelleven@gmail.com (preferable) or 817-370-2171.

April Fool's Talent Show

Sign-ups for talent are open NOW. Please contact Brenda Baldwin (brendabrew@hotmail.com or 817-988-9441) to reserve a spot in the show. Music, comedy, drama, and more are welcome. All participants will need to attend one technical rehearsal during the week before the show.

Reduce Pollution and Raise Funds One Cartridge at a Time

Thank you to all the donors of empty ink cartridges! The Religious Education Committee is continuing to accept your printer cartridges when they're out of ink. We send them to a company that recycles them, and we receive 50 cents to $4.00 for each cartridge. They accept most cartridges except Epson and Canon BCI.

We've already made over $100! The funds are used to purchase new supplies and snacks for the RE program. Place your empty cartridges in a Ziploc or plastic bag, and bring them to church. You can hand deliver them to Caroline Nixon, or leave them in the RE office. Thanks for your support!

Fair Trade Coffee

Every second Sunday, Dolores Ruhs will accept "Fair Trade Coffee" orders. The orders will be faxed Sunday night. The church will get its coffee for $6.00 a pound. She can also place orders for teas, and chocolate bars. The church will realize a commission on all items sold.

"Fair Trade" is a revolutionary concept in action. It is a program that brings together the producer (the coffee grower) and the consumer (the coffee drinker) in a more equitable and meaningful way. The coffee industry middlemen are by-passed and a more direct bridge is built between the producer and the consumer. Also, any "Fair Trade" products that are purchased will go towards helping our church to become a Greener Church. See Dolores for list and prices of coffee, teas and chocolate bars.

Remember, no one can make you feel inferior without your consent.
